Philadelphia May 1. 1886.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox
Superintendent of the Mint
Dear Sir:

Referring to the indictment against Peter Daly which was found on the 17th of February 1885 I have to suggest that in my opinion the case ought to be tried at the approaching session, unless there is some immediate prospect that by further delay other parties can be brought to justice.

As the term will commence on the 17th inst. I would be pleased to hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Very respectfully
John K. Valentine
U.S. Attorney.
